

MONDAY 11 MAY	TUESDAY 12 MAY	WEDNESDAY 13 MAY	THURSDAY 14 MAY	FRIDAY 15 MAY
 BE CURIOUS	 BE MINDFUL	 BE INSPIRED	 BE KIND	 BE REFLECTIVE
Popular festivals & celebrations from around the world: Watch the video Which festival did you find most interesting & why? Which festival & country would you like to visit one day? What are your family traditions? What occasions do you celebrate? Can you think of any other festivals that take place across the world? 	Watch and listen to Beethoven's 5th Symphony HERE During World War 2 it was often known as the Victory Symphony. The opening 4 notes sound like the letter V in morse code. – Da-Da-Da-Dum – -dot-dot-dot-dash- Watch the colours on the screen and see the patterns of each of the instruments coming together to make one sound. Try to notice your breathing as you listen and notice the different emotions you may be feeling. In this one piece there are moments of calm, suspense, and celebration. 	READ THIS EXTRACT Use these guiding questions to talk about it with someone at home or a friend: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Have you heard of Bletchley Park and the important work carried out. In your own words, describe what work did they do during World War 2. 2. The people who worked at Bletchley firstly intended to be teachers, scientists and doctors: they had to adapt to their new role and move into the park. Would this have been easy? 3. Why do you think Alan Turing enjoyed the all night exercises? 4. What events do you think made very clever people want to help during these times? 5. To go from school or college to a place of work is a big step. How can you prepare yourself for the big change? To find out more about Bletchley Park, you can watch a documentary: HERE	Show gratitude to those still working throughout this pandemic (postal workers, refuse collectors, delivery drivers) in the form of a thank you note or a gratitude gift. Add this to the Kindness Calendar from last week. Download HERE if you missed it 	Use this link to tell your teacher about the challenges you completed this week FORM
