

Isle of Sheppey
Part of the Oasis Hub Isle of Sheppey

Literacy: Stupendous sentence structure

Starting blocks

Simple sentences used:

Oberon felt unhappy with Titania

Connectives used:

And

Oberon felt unhappy with Titania and plotted against her.

Challenge Words:

Definitely, poisonous, stationery, vegetable, secretary, abandoned, decision, except, celebrate, cylinder, especially, successful, programme

Moving forward

Simple and complex sentences used:

Oberon was angry with Titania as she had defied him, with regards to the Indian boy.

Connectives used:

And, but, so, also

Getting warmer

Some simple sentences are effective:

Stop there Oberon!

Complex sentences are used to describe:

Titania was so beautiful to Oberon but he was still particularly angry with her.

Blue sky thinking

All the sentences I use are for a purpose: simple, complex and compound.

I can use fronted adverbials:

Suddenly, the door opened and he was there, standing right in front of me.

You're stable

A variety of connectives are used to build up detail throughout:

Although, when, whilst, also, meanwhile, furthermore

Subordinate clauses:

You can use your subordinate clauses in different places in the sentence.

After Amy sneezed all over the tuna salad, her Mum was very angry.

Tanya did poorly on her history exam \emptyset because her best friend Giselle insisted on gossiping during their study session the night before.

Nick gave a handful of potato chips to Button, who was sniffing around the picnic tables.