

conra-actions
contra-indications closed questions
open questions consultation communication influences illustration

HAIRDRESSING AND BEAUTY THERAPY LITERACY MAT

Suggesting improvements for future progress – key words

Safety	autonomy	timing
Difficulty	tools	equipment

Reviewing your own performance

Sentence starters...

- “ I am pleased with this style because...”
- “ I was able to do this style without any assistance”
- “ I did need a little help from my teacher/ peers to complete this style”
- “ I used my tools confidently, they included...”
- “ I worked safely by...”

Remember to PEEL!

- P – Point
Make your point
- E – Evidence
Provide evidence to support your point
- E - Explain
Explain how your evidence supports your point
- L – Link
Link back to the point

Comma used to indicate a pause or separate items Full Stop Used to indicate that a sentence has finished Semicolon Used to join two strongly related sentences or to separate items in a series that had com Exclamation Mark Used at th end of a sentence to show surprise or shock Quotation or Speech Marks used before and after a quotation or direct speech	Colon used to introduce an explanation, further details or a list Apostrophe used to show possession or to show that we left out a letter or group of letters Brackets used for less important details such as an afterthought or personal comment Question Mark used at the end of s question Slash used to indicate line breaks when quoting poetry or plays
---	--

COMMON HOMOPHONES

There/their/they're

- There - shows position - your seat is over there
- Their - shows that 'they' own something - their blazer are blue
- They're - is short for 'they are' - they're revising every day

Your/you're

- Your - shows that 'you' own something - this is your pen
- You're - is short for 'you are' - you're coming to my house

Know/no

- Know - to have knowledge about something - I know my spellings
- No - the opposite of yes or not any - no biscuits are left

Research tips

- Step 1: Brainstorm for ideas. ...
- Step 2: Read General Background Information.
- Step 3: Focus on Your Topic. ...
- Step 4: Make a List of Useful Keywords. ...
- Step 5: Be Flexible. ...
- Step 6: Define Your Topic as a Focused Research Question.

cultural traditions
family occasion
consumer spending unemployment trends
media coverage
celebrity trends
texture