

Personalised Learning Checklist

Look at each of the knowledge statements

If you are confident that you know what it means, tick the green box.

If you're not sure what it means, tick the yellow box.

If you definitely don't know what it means, tick the red box.

By the end of the term we want to see the boxes turned to green ticks. We are learning this because we need to recognise the shared responsibility to protect the community from violent extremism and how to respond to anything that causes anxiety or concern.

	Knowledge Statement	Not a clue	Not sure	Confident
1	I know the meaning of British Values. How citizens can influence decision making through the democratic process.
2	I understand the meaning of British Values. Living under the rule of law protects and promotes the well-being a safety of citizens.
3	I know the links between rights and responsibilities and how Human Rights protect individuals, promote standards in living and equality between groups.
4	I understand where we get our rights from as British Citizens.
5	I can explain why a person might not be able to exercise their rights.
6	I understand what we mean when we say that Human Rights can be in conflict or be in balance.
7	I can identify why the rule of law necessary to uphold our rights?
8	I understand what the concept of community cohesion is.
9	I can explain and characteristics communities with high and low cohesion.
10	I know how community cohesion in Britain over the past 60.
11	I know the meaning of the words, extremism, terrorism and radicalisation.
12	I know the danger signs that might show if someone is at risk of becoming a terrorir.
13	I am able to recognise and protect myself from extremism and radicalisation.
14	I can explain the process of radicalisation and the consequences of extremism.			